121015

Annual Program Summary - Fire Science Technology. . . CIP 430203

Data	Standard	Measurement/ Data Source	2006-2007	2007-2008	2008-2009	2009-2010	2010-2011	2011-2012
I. Effectiveness
A. Quality of Education
Student Satisfaction	At least 85% of AAS graduates will indicate they are satisfied with the quality of their education.	Alumni Survey (previous year's alumni)		1/1= 100%	n= 0	2/3= 66.7%	3/3= 100%	1/1= 100%
Professional Licensure	Graduates will successfully pass professional licensure exams at or above available norms (national or state) on first attempt.	Board and/or Certification Exam Scores (previous year's graduates)						n/a
Employer Satisfaction	At least 85% of employers will indicate graduates are academically prepared for employment.	Employer Survey (previous year's graduates)		1/1= 100%	no data	1/1= 100%	1/1= 100%	no data
	At least 85% of employers will indicate graduates are competent in general education.	Employer Survey (previous year's graduates)		1/1= 100%	no data	1/1= 100%	1/1= 100%	no data
B. Vitality
Job Placement	At least 90% of graduates will secure employment in their field of study within six months of graduation.	Alumni Surveys, KY Unemployment Insurance data (previous year's graduates)		1/1= 100%	no data	3/3= 100%	2/4= 50%	0/1= 0%
Annual Unduplicated Headcount of Program Majors	At least 12 students enrolled in program in most recent fall term.	Official CPE Data- Fall of the currently identified academic year	29	30	41	53	59	64
Graduates/ Credentials	At least 12 graduates per year (CPE).	Official CPE Data (from previous year's graduates)	AD= 2; D= 1	no data	AD= 1; C= 1	AD= 7	AD= 3	AD= 7; C= 2
Student Retention	Adequate to ensure program efficiency. Total enrolled in previous fall divided/total enrolled in current fall plus graduates.)	Fall (previous year) to fall (current year) retention data including graduates		41%	36.7%	26.3%	39.6%	42.0%

Shaded Area - Data is from the previous year