Assessment, Improvement, Measurement (AIM) Report: 04/03/2013

Plan Year: 2011-2012
Unit: Computer and Information Technology
Coordinator(s): Melanie Williamson, Dana Brown, Karman Wheeler, Deborah Holt
Reviewer: Deborah Holt

Objective or Outcome	Measure(s)
	Measure Text	Achievement Target	Results	Achievement Target Result	Use of Findings/Next Steps
Students will be able to plan an entire system in the capstone course	Evaluation in capstone course	80% will score 80% or above on the final project to create an entire system.	All of the students scored over 80% (class average 90.5%).	Met	We are going to spend additional time on group work and communication within the team to make sure all areas of the project are covered.
Students will develop team building and communication skills	Capstone project - utilizing teamwork and communication within the project.	. Eighty-five percent will score 75% or higher on this component of the capstone project.	Eight students received a grade higher than 80%. Two failed to turn in majority of work.	Met	Break assignments down into smaller tasks to better monitor and clarify assignment specifications.
Students will utilize critical thinking skills to solve problems associated with planning an entire system.	Capstone project - utilizing critical thinking skills to solve problems associated with the project.	85% will score 75% or higher on their ability to problem solve in various scenarios from their field of study.	85% scored 75% or higher on their ability to problem solve in various scenarios from their field of study.	Met	Since this measure has been successfully met for 2 years we are moving the class to an online environment and would like to keep assessing to assure quality.