

Medical Information Technology

The program is designed to equip students with the skills needed for success, which include preparing medical records and reports, maintaining paper and electronic files, ordering supplies, performing accounting procedures, working with medical insurance and coding, and receiving patients in a variety of health care settings. Instruction includes both traditional classroom and laboratory experiences and those enrolled in the degree or diploma program will complete an internship or cooperative experience in a medical office.

Bluegrass Occupational Outlook

Career	Average Wage (2010)
Medical records and health information technician	$15.24
Medical secretary	$13.01

Degrees Offered

The following degrees are offered for this program at the Newtown campus and online:

Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.)

Diploma

Certificate

bluegrass.kctcs.edu

BCTC is an equal opportunity employer and education institution.

KENTUCKY COMMUNITY & TECHNICAL COLLEGE SYSTEM