

Security Management

The program provides a comprehensive overview of physical security policies, procedures, and techniques. The curriculum covers perimeter protection, intrusion detection, access control, CCTV, locks and locking devices, lighting, security design and surveys, contingency planning, and acts of violence. Instruction is provided in all types of security hardware, including electronic and mechanical door locks, access control systems, as well as intrusion detection systems and cameras, safes and safe hardware.

Bluegrass Occupational Outlook

Career	Average Wage (2010)
Security guard	$11.61
Security installer	$20.58
Locksmiths and safe repairers	$16.01
Security guard is #24 among Top 50 Bluegrass Occupations with Most Annual Job Openings

Degree Offered

The following degree is offered for this program at the Cooper campus:
Certificate, Security Management Coordinator
Certificate, Safe and Lock Technician

bluegrass.kctcs.edu

