

Scott County Dual Credit Scholarship Application 2021-2022 Academic Year

The Scott County Dual Credit Scholarship provides assistance to 11th and 12th grade Scott County School District students who are eligible for the Free and Reduced Lunch program, are enrolled in BCTC dual credit classes at the BCTC Georgetown-Scott County Campus or a Scott County school and have exhausted or committed their two KHEAA Dual Credit Scholarships and/or available Work Ready Scholarships. For the 2021-2022 Academic Year, the scholarship may also be available to eligible students enrolled in BCTC online classes.

Scholarship Awards

Scott County Dual Credit Scholarships applications submitted for Fall 2021 may be renewed for Spring 2022 if the student continues to meet all eligibility criteria. Students who do not apply for the Fall may apply for Spring. Scholarships cover the cost of BCTC dual credit tuition, fees, and online book charges. Scholarship funds will be credited to the student's BCTC account after final grades are posted. Scholarships will not be applied to classes in which the student receives a non-passing grade of I, E or W.

Awarding Criteria

Scholarship awards are subject to available funding. Students eligible to receive scholarships must meet the following criteria:

- in grades 11 or 12 during the 2021-2022 academic year; and
- are residents of Scott County enrolled in a Scott County School District school; and
- are eligible for the Free and Reduced Lunch program during the 2021-2022 academic year; and
