

Bluegrass Community and Technical College

2019 Alumni Hall of Distinction

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Background

For many, the road to lifetime achievement included study at Bluegrass Community and Technical College (BCTC) or one of its preceding institutions. The College and the BCTC Foundation created the Alumni Hall of Distinction in 2017 to recognize those former students who have achieved outstanding success and made a lasting impact on their community. Each year, the Alumni Hall of Distinction Selection Committee considers nominees and selects up to four new inductees. The new inductees' pictures and biographies will be placed in the Alumni Hall of Distinction Corridor on BCTC's Newtown Campus.

How You Can Help

Please identify an outstanding candidate or candidates for consideration.

Criteria

Candidates must have obtained a credential, certificate, diploma, degree or have accumulated 60 credit hours at Bluegrass Community and Technical College or one of its preceding institutions (Central Kentucky State Vocational School, Lexington Community College, Lexington Technical Institute) demonstrated achievement in their profession or business, provided service in their community and added value to BCTC and/or its Foundation. Diversity of candidates is welcomed and encouraged. Persons running for political office will not be considered during their active campaign period. Posthumous nominations will not be considered.

How to Nominate

On the back of this form, you will find a nomination form to complete.

Nominations must be received by November 1, 2018.

Note: One form is required for each candidate you nominate.

The Selection Process

Following receipt of a completed form, we will contact the nominee and request they complete a Candidate Information Questionnaire that indicates their willingness to participate in the selection process. The Alumni Hall of Distinction Selection Committee then meets to consider each nominee. Final selections are made by mid-July at which time we personally notify the nominees who will be honored.
