

BCTC's Arts in Focus Committee Presents

A Monotype Workshop

Erica Meuser, Printmaking Instructor

Saturday, April 25, 2015

1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Newtown Campus

Classroom Building, Room 113

500 Newtown Pike

Lexington, KY 40508

A monotype is something like a printed painting. In fact, the process could be described as a combination of drawing, painting and printmaking. In this workshop, you will have the opportunity to explore the fun process of creating a variety of prints with water-soluble inks. And, no two prints will be exactly alike! This class is ideal for beginners as well as those with previous print experience. Equipment and materials will be supplied. (Suggestion: wear old clothing.)

A Kent, Ohio native, Meuser has lived in Kentucky since 1982, where she has exhibited her prints in solo and group shows. Also, she is an adjunct writing instructor at Bluegrass Community & Technical College.

Self-portrait as an artist

Workshop Fee—A BARGAIN!

Students = $20

Non-students = $35

To register for the class, fill out this form and mail with payment by April 20, 2015 to Terry Buckner, 500 Newtown Pike, 120C Classroom Building, Lexington, KY 40508. You may also call (859) 246-6397 to register for the class then mail your payment. Please make checks payable to the BCTC Foundation.

Name _____

Address _____

Phone number _____ Email _____

Amount enclosed $ _____

