Click the “Read Online” button to view the book.

The screenshot shows the Ebook Central interface. On the left, there is a sidebar with the book cover and metadata: 'Global Warming' by Archer, David, published by Wiley on 2009-03-12. Below this is a search box and a 'TABLE OF CONTENTS' section with 'Global Warming' selected. The main area displays page 52 of 198, titled 'THE GREENHOUSE EFFECT'. The page content discusses the frequency range of the atmospheric window and the skin altitude model. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Home', 'Search', 'Bookshelf', 'Settings', and 'Sign In'.

The book will display with the table of contents in a frame on the left, and the pages of the book on the right.

To move through the book, click on any section or chapter to jump to that chapter, or use the arrow buttons to move forward and backward through the pages.

Use the toolbar at the top of the page to use various functions, such as printing and downloading a chapter. (Some additional features on toolbar may require you to set up an optional, free Ebook Central account, first.)

The screenshot shows the Ebook Central homepage. At the top is a navigation bar with 'Home', 'Search', 'Bookshelf', 'Settings', and 'Sign In'. Below this is a message: 'Sign In to use authoritative ebooks provided by Bluegrass Community and Technical College'. There are three main sections: 'Trusted Content', 'On the Go', and 'Save and Share'. A 'Sign In' box is visible on the right, with fields for 'Email/Username' and 'Password', and a 'Sign In' button. At the bottom, there is a 'Join Ebook Central' button. Arrows from the right point to the 'Sign In' button and the 'Join Ebook Central' button.

Create Ebook Central account (optional): Click “Sign In” then “Join Ebook Central” for these added features:
